Foreword

High school days pass quickly and records are written on the pages of time and memory. We, the 1965 CIRCLE staff, have tried to preserve the places and persons we have loved for the past four years. We hope that in these pages will be reserved a pictorial record of our studies, our sports, our activities, and our unforgettable memories. We also hope that it will bring joy to all who remember the Class of 1965. These memories of our lives at Louisburg High School will always be loved and will remain etched in the hearts of every one of us.

IN LOVING MEMORY

ALEXANDER WILLIAM WILSON
Beloved Classmate and Friend
(November 21, 1946-August 16, 1960)

AWAY

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away!

With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you--oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return--

Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.

Mild and gentle, as he was brave,
With the sweetest love of his life he gave.

The touches of his hands have strayed
As reverently as his lips have prayed.

Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead--he is just away.

James Whitcomb Riley

MRS. JEANNETTE P. ARNOLD

Dedication

Woven throughout our tapestry of triumphs and disappointments can be seen the figure of a friend in the shadow of each encounter. She has molded our characters with the influence of her high ideals and her perception of truth and honesty. Her ability to judge wisely, to give tactful counsel, to foresee stumbling blocks, and to share our joys and griefs has made her a beacon to light the pathway of her students, and has given us a better understanding of the true value of life. Because of all her wonderful qualities, we dedicate the 1965 CIRCLE to one of our most cherished friends, MRS. JEANNETTE P. ARNOLD.

Class History

In 1953 we the Class of 1965 began a journey which would take us through the elementary and high school years. The eight years which were spent at William Robert Mills School were filled with the expectation of high school.

Finally the big day came in the fall of 1961. We were FRESHMEN, beginning our last leg of the journey in a new school. We were guided that year by the steady hands of Mr. Clyde Polk and Mrs. Celeste Wallace. Bill Williamson led our class as President along with Kate Huggins, Vice President; Anna Collier, Secretary; and Butch Strickland, Treasurer. Anna Collier was chosen our representative for Homecoming Queen, and Toni Merritt and Darrell Simmons represented our class in the Mr. and Miss Louisburg High Contest. We not only had fine leadership, but a good spirit of participation. Freshmen faces became familiar to many upperclassmen wno tried to ignore us.

By our Sophomore year we were very confident and nothing could phase us. We elected as our class officers Tommy Smith, President; Robert Redmond, Vice President; Trudy Jones, Secretary; and Bill Oakley, Treasurer. Again the Class of '65 would not be second best. Susan Lloyd was chosen Homecoming Queen over the other contestants. We were well represented in sports, clubs, and the student government. Kate Huggins, Bill Williamson, and Nell Strickland were our Student Council members. Robert Redmond, Bill Williamson, and Boyd Mathews played on the varsity football team, whereas, Bill Williamson, William Jones, and Charles Holmes played on the varsity basketball team. The girls refused to be left out in the area of sports. Betty Jo Moore, Paulette Mullen, Susan Lloyd, Kate Huggins, Nell Strickland, and Anna Collier were our representatives on the girls' basketball team. Susan Lloyd, Linda Faulkner, and Tommy Smith became members of the Beta Club. Mary Charles Wheless and Bill Williamson were our representatives for the Mr. and Miss Louisburg High School contest. In this eventful year, we had as our advisors Mrs. Jewel C. Bartholomew and Mr. A. D. Fox.

"Junior Senior--Class Rings--Junior Senior--Class Rings" were the excited whispers heard as we entered school in the fall of 1963 as Juniors. Again we were excellently represented in all areas of high school life. By now many of us had become leaders of clubs and some played important parts in the sports world of Louisburg High. Susan Lloyd joined the Student Council elite, Betty Lou Medlin, Paulette Mullen, Trudy Jones, Anna Collier, and Bruce Wynne were tapped for Beta Club, and Betty Jo Moore became Assistant Editor of the SCHOOL DAZE. Our class officers were Dwight Perdue, President; Frank Peoples, Vice President; Susan Lloyd, Secretary; and Bruce Wynne, Treasurer. Rebecca Perdue was our Homecoming Representative. Anna Collier and Al Bland represented our class in the Mr. and Miss Louisburg High Contest. Our Junior year was highlighted by a successful Junior Senior Banquet entitled "Shangrila." We owed much of our success as Juniors to Mrs. Jeannette Arnold, Mrs. Mamie Clayton, and Miss Judith Butler, who were our advisors.

After three quick years we finally realized that we were SENIORS. Under the leadership of Mrs. Jeannette Arnold and Mr. Randy Elrod, we began our last year by choosing Robert Redmond as President; Bruce Wynne, Vice President; Paulette Mullen, Secretary; Anna Collier, Treasurer; and Dwight Perdue, Sergeant-at-Arms. In this Senior year our faces were predominant in school activities and clubs. Toni Merritt and Kate Huggins became Beta Club members. In football, Robert Redmond, Boyd Mathews, Bill Williamson, Butch Strickland, Darrell Simmons, Dwight Perdue, Bruce Wynne, and Frank Peoples were the Senior representatives. As basketball season came along the Seniors again were well represented. Betty Jo Moore, Paulette Mullen, and Susan Lloyd played on the girl's team; Bill Williamson, Fred Peoples, and William Jones were members of the boys' team. Leading the student government was Tommy Smith as President of the Student Council. Kate Huggins and Susan Lloyd were Co-Editors of the CIRCLE. Other Seniors who served as presiding officers of clubs were Robert Redmond, President of the Monogram Club, Betty Lou Medlin, President of F.T.A., Susan Lloyd, President of the Beta Club, and Anna Collier, President of F. B. L. A. Again the class came through with a winner. Betty Jo Moore was chosen Homecoming Queen. In the Mr. and Miss Louisburg High contest, Susan Lloyd and Butch Strickland were chosen to represent us. As an eventful climax to twelve long years, the Class of 1965 took the long awaited trip to Washington and New York.

Now we the Senior Class of 1965 prepare to embark on our many different ways, we are able to look back on our high school career with much pride.

Class Prophecy

THE TIME: 1975 THE PLACE: Louisburg High School
THE OCCASION: Reunion of Class of '65

As time moves on, the world changes. And so it is with the class of 1965 of Louisburg High School. Take a peek into the lives of the members of that memorable class. You might be surprised!

BO ALLEN, always the most talented boy in our class, has now set up his own band, and is making his second million.

ANNA COLLIER, after going with the same boy all through high school, has now turned down her tenth diamond. She said she just hasn't found the right boy.

CALVIN BURNETTE, who was always noted for his hair, has now taken Ringo's place with the Beatles, and is enjoying the fame.

NELL STRICKLAND, the first in our class to be married, is now living in Hollywood while her book HOW TO HAVE A SUCCESSFUL TEENAGE MARRIAGE is being filmed.

TOMMY FULLER, after learning to fly, has taken several trips around the world as pilot for TWA.

SUSAN LLOYD became so fond of the University of North Carolina that she is now teaching there.

RICKY EDWARDS, always noted for his sharp clothes, has opened his own clothing store in New York.

PAULETTE MULLEN was always so fond of Carolina Beach that she is now a professional surf bum and spends all her time there.

BUDDY O'NEAL decided that cooking was so much fun that he opened his won "Chip's" in Virginia and has been busy ever since.

TRUDIE GUPTON has taken her love for art and the guitar to New York. Here she is an all out "beatnik" and is running her own coffee house, "The Out of the Way in the Way Pad."

CHARLES HOLMES, after mastering his Honda, has moved on to bigger things, and is now the owner and operator of Trailways Bus Line.

KATE HUGGINS, voted "Most Likely to Succeed" in the Senior Class is now in Washington, preparing her campaign speech for the Presidency.

BUTCH STRICKLAND, voted "Cutest" in the Senior Class, is now in Hollywood, where he is fast becoming a star.

TONI MERRITT, noted for her ability to talk for hours without stopping, is now on the debating team at State.

BOYD MATHEWS, the football player of the group, was so upset at the thought of giving up the game that he majored in Physical Education at college and is now head waterboy at State.

ANN EDWARDS has really become famous. Her newest book, entitled HOW TO GROW HAIR, has made her millions.

AL BLAND, with his love for Tikis has his own schooner, has taken Gardner McKay's place in "Adventures in Paradise", and spends his time in Tahiti.

KATHI KANNAN, often noted for her wit, now has her own television show which has replaced the "The Dick Van Dyke Show."

J. W. HICKERSON is now the owner of a perfume factory in Southern France. Hear he has letters from women admirers by the hundreds.

PATRICIA FINCH, who won a contest for being so shy, also won a husband, and is now the mother of four lovely children.

LARRY TIPPETT, with his love for French, is now in the process of translating several books from English into French. Understand he's making quite a lot of money.

BETTY MURPHY, who couldn't decide between Louisburg and Franklinton, finally built a home halfway between them and settled down with her husband.

DARRELL SIMMONS, voted "Best Looking" in the senior class, has bought a glass house in Florida so that his features may be admired by all.

ARNOLA CARPENTER, who decided to go into nurse's training, fainted at the first sight of blood, and fell into the arms of a doctor, and later married him.

FRED PEOPLES is every girl's dream. He is now swinging from trees in the new TARZAN series.

MARY ABBOTT became so familiar with the streets of Henderson that she is now a fulltime resident there. Hear she really likes it.

BILL WILLIAMSON has revised the rules for basketball and football, and is now a one-man team. The only problem is that he doesn't have many teams as to play him.

DALE ALLEN, after much thought, has her own private business. She is now teaching ballet in New York.

DONALD HICKS, after sleeping through school, has invented a wide-awake pill for students who just can't seem to keep their eyes open.

PATRICIA TROTTER is now making millions. She is guiding tourists through the Sahara on her camel.

EARL DICKERSON must be rich. It seems he is living in an ultra-modern hotel in California with all the extras, including a different blond, brunette, or redhead for every night of the work.

BRENDA PEARCE is now married to a business tycoon, and lives in a mansion in San Francisco.

MIKE PHILLIPS, our faithful lunch ticket seller, has moved up another step. At the present, he is the number one ticket collector at the Louisburg Theater.

NANCY ALFORD is now the happy mother of six children and is teaching Home Economics at LHS.

BRUCE WYNNE, always noted for his mucical ability and love for marching, has taken over Mr. Watson's job as band instructor at old LHS HELEN BAILEY, known for her petite figure in high school, has really changed. She is now 5'9" and weighs 193 pounds.

TOMMY SMITH, voted "Most Intellectual" of the Senior Class, after going to Duke for eight years, is now a door-to-door soap salesman.

JEAN ZEALAND, who always wanted to teach, is now in charge of the elementary department at Louisburg.

DWIGHT PERDUE, who was voted "Most Courteous" in the Senior Class, is now the official door attendant at the Sir Walter Raleigh.

BILL OAKLEY, who always loved D-Hall so much, now has a permanent position there.

ANN DICKERSON, after having divorced her sixth husband, has retired from the social world. She is content just counting her alimony.

FRANCIS COLEY, who could always figure things out, is now a successful lawyer, and handles only special cases--blonds, of course.

LINDA FAULKNER finally found that "Dream Man" that she was looking for and is now happily married.

JOHNNY CLIFTON, the science wizard of the Senior Class, is now the Number One Chemistry professor at Duke.

STEVE HARRIS, the pool sharp of our class, has just finished another book entitled BILLIARDS FOR PROFIT.

HENRY SOUTHERLAND is very happy these days. Seems his gambling casino finally paid off.

ROBERT REDMOND, who made such a fine Senior Class President, is now in the race for the governorship of Florida.

BETTY JO MOORE, the tallest girl in our class could not be located. The last we heard, she was taking shrinking pills, and dropped out of sight.

WAYNE DAY decided to follow his father's footsteps to a certain extent, and has now replaced James Arnes as Matt Dillon on "Gunsmoke."

FRANK PEOPLES, who made such a lovely Lady Macbeth, is now in England where he is playing Lady Macbeth for 12,000 people.

TRUDY JONES, who was such a big help to teachers in her high school days, is now at LHS as the official grade keeper.

ROBERT CASSELL, always interested in flying, is now a General in the Air Force, and to make a career of it.

REBECCA PERDUE, voted "Cutest" in our Senior Class, is now a professional model. By the way, she is engaged to her photographer.

RALPH IHRIE, the poet of our class, has become famous as North Carolina's own Poet.

DOROTHY KNOTT, after becoming interested in flying, has become an airline stewardess. Naturally, we know which airline she's with.

TOMMY BALL, with his love for cars, is now a famous race car driver, spending much of his time on the French coast.

BETTY LOU MEDLIN, who had so much fun keeping the office for Mr. Fox, has now taken over as Principal of LHS.

VERNON DICKERSON seems very happy these days. Seems that old Chevy of his not only looks "mean" and sounds "mean", but after tinkering with it all these years, it is Mean.

WILLIAM and HENRY JONES, who were such excellent business students, are now Co-Presidents of Jones Incorporated--and spend their time with secretaries sitting on their laps.

PHILLIP ROBERTS now owns the largest business in Alaska. He sells oil heaters to the Eskimos.

Last Will and Testament

We the Louisburg High School Class of '65, Louisburg, North Carolina, being of sane mind and body do hereby declare this our official last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our parents and friends who have guided and encouraged us onward and upward, we leave our love and appreciation for their patience and efforts.

ARTICLE II

To MR. FOX, our mighty bald-headed leader, we leave the sincere desire that he will win the hearts of his students as a principal as he did as a coach.
To MRS. ARNOLD, we leave a first year typing class that doesn't waste paper.
To MR. ELROD, we leave a ten-foot towel to cry on after ball games.
To MRS. BARTHOLOMEW, we leave a Government class that can pass her pop test.
For MRS. MADISON, we take Buddy O'Neal along with us so she can once again have an orderly class.
To MRS. LEONARD, we leave a year's supply of paper towels for the boys Home Economics class.
To MISS CRAWFORD, we leave a French class that knows what she is talking about.
To MR. MORGAN, we leave the memories of our brilliant minds and our alertness on class.
To MRS. PARRISH, we leave an English class that won't complain about the homework.
To MR. WATSON, we leave a go-cart to ride between buildings.
To MRS. MORGAN, we leave a typewriter that can't possibly make mistakes.

ARTICLE III

To the rising SENIORS, we leave our straight "A" report cards, our good looks, our willingness to work, and our best wishes towards a year of seniority.
To the rising JUNIORS, we leave 300 unsold cases of candy, to put them in debt as it did us.
To the rising SOPHOMORES, we leave the privilege to be superior to someone.
To the rising FRESHMAN, we leave bravery. Before the year is over, you will need it.

ARTICLE IV

BO ALLEN leaves his position as band wise guy to Mike Carter.
MARY ABBOTT leaves her friendly, but sure, ways to Ann Griffin.
TOMMY BALL regrets to say that he doesn't leave anything; he needs everything he can get.
DALE ALLEN leaves her love for the Freshman class to Hilda Coley.
AL BLAND leaves his Beatle haircut to the County Board of Education.
HELEN BAILEY, one of the newer members of our class, leaves the love she has formed for LHS to Miss Crawford.
CALVIN BURNETTE leaves his Beatle shirts, his Beatle records, his Beatle fan club card, and his Beatle haircut to James Berger, who is a real fan.
ARNOLA CARPENTER leaves her quiet, shy ways to Bettie Lavender.
FRANCIS COLEY, who finally brought an excuse for his absences, leaves it to Howard Stallings.
ANNA COLLIER, a cheerleader, leaves her position as most rhythmical one to Tracey Winn.
JOHNNY CLIFTON leaves his love for the chemistry lab to Junior Finch, in hopes that he will take care of it.
ANN EDWARDS leaves her secret love for a high time with no worries to Jo Ann Wolozin.
WAYNE DAY leaves his connections with the Highway Patrol to Buddy Stewart.
NANCY ALFORD AND NELL STRICKLAND leave their ability to catch a GOOD man to Ann Merritt.
EARL DICKERSON leaves his ability to win, no matter what the game is, to George Drewett.
VERNON DICKERSON leaves his nickname to anyone who knows what it means.
LINDA FAULKNER leaves her ability to try to solve everyone's problems at once to Frances Murphy.
RICKY EDWARDS leaves his ways with wild women and fast cars to Roger Kornegay.
PATRICIA FINCH leaves her love for Lake Donna to anyone who can tell when they are going to have a band.
TOMMY FULLER leaves his mean "three in the floor" to "Big Donn Southerland."
TRUDY GUPTON leaves her love for '64 "wide track" Pontiacs to Phyllis Jeffreys.
STEVE HARRIS leaves his '55 Ford to Keith Wrenn.
KATE HUGGINS leaves her faithful (?) "blue bomb" to anyone who has the nerve to drive it.
DONALD HICKS leaves his love and appreciation of school to Keith Perry.
TRUDY JONES, the teacher's favorite helper, leaves her ability to be there just when needed to Emma Ruth Bartholomew
J. W. HICKERSON, majoring in English, leaves his ability to do this while still in high school to the English Department.
KATHI KANNAN leaves all her wrong answers to Steve Hight, who's known to come up with a few of his own.
CHARLES HOLMES leaves his parking place with the teachers to Bill Bartholomew.
DOROTHY KNOTT leaves her technique for changing gears to Avis Lester.
RALPH IHRIE leaves his ability to carry 15 books at once to Glenn Woodlief.
SUSAN LLOYD leaves her promptness for ringing the bell to Blake York. (Wonder how long study hall will last.)
HENRY and WILLIAM JONES leave their finance company to Jay Taylor. (Good luck, Juniors; you'll need it!)
BETTY LOU MEDLIN leaves her position as scorekeeper to Mr. Morgan, so next year's team will win a few more.
BOYD MATHEWS leaves his ability to speak in public to Jimmy Wilson.
TONI MERRITT leaves her ability to totally confuse everyone to Mary Ann Fleming.
BILL OAKLEY leaves D-Hall behind.
BETTY JO MOORE leaves her typing speed to "Wild" Bill Shelton.
FRANK PEOPLES leaves his ability to give a four hour General Science report to Bobby "Kink" Pleasants.
PAULETTE MULLEN leaves her happy memories of the BEACH to anyone who really knows how to appreciate a good surfer.
FRED PEOPLES leaves his position on the basketball team to Wilbur Moore.
BETTY MURPHY leaves her ability to know all the answers to Ray Patterson.
DWIGHT PERDUE leaves his orderly ideas to Jo Ann Hale.
MIKE PHILLIPS leaves his expert driving ability to C. B. Patterson, who need a little help with his steering.
REBECCA PERUDE leaves her ability to know where all the boys are to Mr. Fox.
BUDDY O'NEAL leaves his ability to sleep on class to Matt Brown.
PHILLIP ROBERTS leaves his ability to struggle through Chemistry to rising Juniors.
ANN DICKERSON leaves her ability to stick to the job to Ann Avent.
ROBERT CASSELL leaves his love of the Civil Air Patrol to Danny Matthews.
PATRICIA TROTTER leaves her life-time pass to the drive-in to Charlie Griffin.
ROBERT REDMOND leaves his football helmet to anyone who wears a size 13.
DARRELL SIMMONS leaves his fondness for Trudy Gupton to his girl in Bunn.
TOMMY SMITH leaves his height to Brantley Hight.
JEAN ZEALAND leaves her column in THE FRANKLIN TIMES to Yvonne Dickerson, who we are sure will keep everyone up on all the news.
HENRY SOUTHERLAND leaves his convincingly wild tales to the high school library, so that everyone can enjoy them.
BUTCH STRICKLAND leaves a Year's supply of BROKEN pencils to the FBLA store.
LARRY TIPPETT leaves his skill and enjoyment of Plane Geometry to the rising first grade.
BILL WILLIAMSON leaves his ability to be late at least four times a week to Jane McKinne.
BRUCE WYNNE leaves his noble size to Billy Dement, next year's football star.
BRENDA PEARCE leaves her ability to sell over 50 tickets to the Senior Supper to the rising Senior class.

Class Poem

The sun may rise at every dawn
And the stars may shine at every night,
But once youth has flown,
It has had its last flight.

Peace and war may come and go
And come and go some more,
But in the ebb and tide of life's flow,
Only once does youth trickle to life's shore.

Enjoy life's fertile core
Before its preciousness is gone,
For youth comes no more
After its flight is flown.

In these, the decisive years of our youth,
A time to take, and share, and give,
We struggle to find the path of truth
That will determine the lives we live.

We are like unto a pilot upon the sea;
With his compass, he must set the course to be.
Youth is the compass to be used on life's sea . . .
In youth we set the courses of our lives eternally.

May we set the courses ever so well
With God's guidance through these years
That in our sunsets, at death's knell,
We need not, in remembrance, shed repentant tears.

RESCUED (for me I guess)

Blake,

I don't really know where to start, so I'll begin here, and on September, 1964 when we had such a great time at the country music show. I really got an educational experience out of that one. (This pen doesn't write so hot.)

You can't imagine how much these last eight months have meant to me. They have been so much fun. my story now.
I hope the months to come will be just as much fun. it gone it away.

Come to think of it you're one of the most trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent, not to mention how nice you are. girls I know

Even though you hate school, I think we can manage to hang on just a little bit longer. After all, who could resist me and all my wonderful traits. Seriously, I wish you the best of luck God has to offer to such a deserving girl.

Love always,

~~Love~~ ~~Diane~~

Hi Blake,

Well Baby, what ya want me to say? I could say you were sweet, nice, and all that rot but my Momma told me not to tell lies. Did you know that I have never told a lie in my life? I guess you could just call me another George Washington. That's who I look like with my hair rolled up.

Blake, you just don't know how lucky you are. Do you realize that you have had the great, fantastic, fabulous opportunity of knowing me for a ~~month~~ a year May. May flowers bring April showers. Now May is a very nice month. Now, back to the terrific subject of me, dear Head. Are ya glad you have me as a friend? My personality is beyond control, way out, I mean uncontrollable; but you have personality as me. I know you're sitting here wishing and hoping and praying that you could be like me.

Did I just hear you say that Bill Patterson is nothing in comparison with Jimmy? Well sweetie, I got to admit that brother is good-looking. But as Martha's daddy says how can he help it when he has as beautiful a sister as me. I'm so proud of myself. I mean, I'm beautiful, I'm absolutely positive of the fact, but can I help it? Of course I can't. Do I seem ~~cocky~~ conceited? Of course not; but I am convinced. How could someone like me help but be that way. I guess from what I have written, you can see that I have an inferiority-complex. Oh, I must stop talking about myself. I love me, I love me, I love me. Who doesn't? No one except Butch, your mommy, Trudi Upton, the monkeys, the dogs, the cats the birds... Ricky, Lonnie's brother, slobs a bird and puts a bandaid on its head, the turtles, the rats, and the KANGAROOS. A kangaroo is an animal. A baby kangaroo is called a joey. Do you know Joey Bishop? I do. Ain't I privileged — I mean, ain't he privileged? Me, I mean, I'm so glad. Well, I must stop talking about me, even though I know you don't want me to stop.

Your beautiful friend who the monkeys don't like but the KANGAROOS do. You're the best KANGAROO I ever did know. Your pouch is big enough.

Lynda the Head

It a great study Blake real I wish the best of luck in life.

Blake,
Well, how do I begin to tell you how much I think of you and how much I treasure your friendship. I'm sure it would take many pages so I'll just take it for
